WOMAN'S AUXILIARY ANNUAL REPORT
to
The Members of the Congregation of
The Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

There were eight regular meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of the Redeemer during 1933; each included reports from the five standing Committees, the Sewing Society, the United Offering and the Church Periodical Club.

At three of the meetings most interesting speakers added to the usual program. These were Mrs. Van Pelt from St. James Church, who gave, in March, a short and vivid picture of the growth of the United Offering; Mrs. Hill, who was present in November and whose inspirational address was a great education in the new goals and plans of the Woman's Auxiliary, and Mr. Eastburne, who was the speaker in December, and touched every one's heart by his appeal for the work at St. Barnabas, Kensington.

Mrs. Haines conducted a Mission Study Class for the younger women during Lent, while Mrs. Vauclain had a large group sewing each Friday.

At the February meeting members of the Executive Committee were appointed as follows:

Mrs. Earp	New Members
Miss Haughton	Speakers
Mrs. Griffith	The Isolated
Mrs. Bullock	Charge of the Parish House
Mrs. Thompson	Hostess to Arrange the Teas

A Mission Box was taken by the Auxiliary at Christmas time and a most appreciative and human letter was received from the wife of the clergyman to whom it was sent. A box of second-hand clothing was sent to the Lepers in Japan.

Mrs. Bullock's Committee put a new cover on the table and Prayer bench in the Auxiliary room.

December 20th the Annual Christmas Party for St. Barnabas was given under the able leadership of Mrs. Shafer. Checks amounting to $250.00 were received that day; as they were nearly all made out to Mr. Eastburne, this whole sum does not appear on the Treasurer's Annual Report.

Tea was served at the close of each meeting of the Auxiliary, two different women each time being hostesses for the afternoon.

Respectfully submitted,
KATHERINE DALE GENUNG, Secretary.
